

SEC. 130. That in case the person so elected shall fail to execute the bonds required by the preceding section on or before the day prescribed for his entering upon the duties of his office, or before the annual levy of taxes is placed in his hands for collection, as the case may be, or in the event of the Treasurer's removal from the county, death, resignation or removal from office the County Commissioners shall declare said office vacant, and at once proceed to fill the same by appointment of a suitable person possessing the qualifications herein prescribed for the remainder of the current term, when a Treasurer shall be elected for a full term of four years.

SEC. 131. He shall perform all the duties now by law required to be performed by said Treasurer, or which may be required of him by any future law.

He shall receive as compensation for all his services as Treasurer an annual salary of three thousand dollars, to be paid monthly, which said sum shall be in lieu of all fees and commissions.

SEC. 132. He shall have the power to appoint one assistant at a salary not to exceed $1800.00, and another at a salary not to exceed $1200.00, provided the business of his office shall make such appointment or appointments necessary; and the assistant or assistants so appointed shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of this State, and shall execute such bond or bonds as the said Treasurer may require.

SEC. 133. Repealed.

SEC. 134. He shall collect all taxes levied by the County Commissioners, and shall receive all moneys due to said county from any source whatever, and shall disburse the same under the provisions of law and the order of the County Commissioners. It shall be his duty to promptly deposit all moneys and receipts by him collected in some bank or banks, or banking institution or institutions of Montgomery County, and it shall be obligatory upon said Treasurer to prefer, in selecting such place or places of deposit, the bank or institution, or banks or institutions which shall agree to pay two per cent upon monthly balance of such deposit over such as may not be willing to pay such interest.

SEC. 153. Repealed.
