

116-B. The commission shall appoint, and at pleasure remove, a secretary to the commission, whose duty it shall be to keep a full and true record of all its proceedings, preserve at its general offices all its books, documents and papers, prepare for service such notices and other papers as may be required of him by the commission, and to perform such other duties as the commission may prescribe, and may, under the direction of the commission, issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses before the commission with the same effect as if they were issued in an action in the courts of this State, and may, under the direction of the commission, administer oaths in all matters pertaining to the duties of his office or connected with the administration of the affairs of the commission. Disobedience of such a subpoena and false swearing before such secretary shall be attended by the same consequence and be subject to the same penalties as if such disobedience or false swearing occurred in an action in the courts of this State. The secretary of the commission shall receive a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum and shall be entitled to receive his actual and necessary traveling and other necessary expenses incurred by him in the performance of his official duties, payable out of said fees. The Commission shall annually make to the Governor a full report of its proceedings for the year ending June 1st each year, and may submit, with such report, such recommendations pertaining to its affairs as to it shall seem desirable. At the time of making said report said commission shall transmit to the Governor a full and detailed statement of all its receipts and disbursements during the preceding year.

116-C. The commission is hereby given power to appoint one special temporary inspector to represent the commission at any performance or exhibition where it will be impossible for some member of the commission to be present, and who shall receive his actual and necessary traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties, payable out of said fees.

116-D. The commission shall have, and hereby is vested with, the sole direction, management, control of and jurisdiction over all boxing and sparring and wrestling matches and exhibitions to be conducted, held or given within the State by any person, club, corporation or association: and no boxing or
