116-L. Any person, club, corporation or association which may conduct, hold or give, or participate in, any sham or fake boxing or sparring or wrestling match or exhibition or performance shall thereby forfeit his, its or their license issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act, which shall thereupon be, by the commission, cancelled and declared void; and he, it or they shall not thereafter be entitled to receive another such or any license pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

116-M. Any contestant who shall participate in any sham or fake boxing or sparring or wrestling match or exhibition shall be penalized in the following manner: For the first offense he shall be prohibited for a period of six months, such period to begin immediately after the occurrence of such offense, from participating in any competition to be held or given by any club, person, corporation or association duly licensed to give or to hold such boxing or sparring or wrestling match or exhibition; for a second offense he shall be totally disqualified from further admission or participation in any contest held or given by any club, corporation, person or association duly licensed for said purposes.

116-N. The commission shall prescribe the length in rounds of every boxing and sparring match or exhibition and the contestants in every such match or exhibition shall wear gloves weighing not less than five ounces.

116-O. Any principal, principals, manager, managers, second, seconds, promoter or promoters, or matchmaker if found guilty of receiving or accepting any money or presents from any boxer or exhibitor of the art of boxing or sparring or from any wrestler for some special privilege or for discriminating in matters of making a match shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a penalty as prescribed in this Act.

116-P. That no boxing or sparring or wrestling exhibition, exhibitions, performance or performances, shall be held or conducted in any building, buildings, structure or structures where liquor is sold or served.

116-Q. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this Act for which a penalty is not expressly prescribed shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00).
