

and he shall see that copies of all ordinances shall be put up in five of the most public places of said town.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That they shall have full power and authority annually in the month of April, at their first meeting, to appoint a treasurer for said town; and they shall have power also to appoint any policemen and other officers as they may deem necessary, and the said policemen and the bailiff shall serve warrants and make arrests for violations of the ordinances of said town; and it shall be their duties to preserve the peace and good order of said town: and for these purposes the said bailiff and policemen are hereby vested with the same powers and authorities as constables of said county now have under the laws of the State and the said bailiff shall perform any and all other duties which the Mayor and Commissioners shall by ordinance designate. The said policemen and other officers shall receive such reasonable compensation as said Commissioners shall deem proper; and the said officers appointed under this section shall, before entering upon the duties of their office, make oath before the said Mayor of Westernport that they will faithfully and impartially perform the duties required of them respectively, according to the best of their skill and judgment, without favor, affection, or prejudice.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the said Mayor and Commissioners may pass such ordinances, not contrary to law, as they may deem beneficial and necessary for the good government of the town; they shall have power to remove nuisances or obstructions from the streets, lanes and alleys, drains or water courses within the said town or from or upon any lot or lots adjacent thereto, and to provide for imposing a fine upon any person or persons causing or creating any such nuisances or obstructions and to enforce such rules, penalties and regulations as they may think necessary to preserve the public health and secure the inhabitants from contagious, infectious or other diseases, to suppress drunkenness, vice and immorality and punish all violations of the public peace from whatever cause and generally they shall have power to ordain and enforce all ordinances, rules and regulations necessary for the peace, good order, health and safety of the town and of the people and property therein and may impose such reasonable fines, forfeitures or imprisonments as