

to them may appear necessary for the violation of any of the ordinances of said town. They shall have power to establish and regulate a station house or lock-up for confinement of violators of the law and ordinances of said town. They shall have power to make reasonable regulations in regards to buildings to be erected in said town and to grant building permits for the same; to make and establish grades on the streets and highways of the town; to cause the sidewalks and gutters along the public streets and highways of said town to be graded, paved or repaired at the cost and expense of the abutting property or the owner thereof and to collect from said abutting property or owner thereof the cost of making said improvements thereto, when made by the Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport, after refusal or neglect on the part of the property owner to do so after reasonable notice, the cost of which improvement as made by the Mayor and Commissioners, shall be a lien against said abutting property and collectable as are liens for taxes against said property or owner thereof; to charge for and grant licenses for marketable commodities and for carrying on any business, trade, industry, profession or occupation within the limits of said town and more specifically in connection therewith but not by way of limitations or restrictions, to regulate and provide for the issuing of licenses or permits for all hawking, peddling and vending of wares, merchandise of every description upon the streets and highways of the town, to impose and demand a license from all players or showmen exhibiting within said town and to provide for licensing theatres and to regulate or restrain theatrical or other public amusements within said town; to regulate and license the business of conducting restaurants, saloons, hotels or any other business enterprise carried on within the said town, to license carriages, wagons or other vehicles used in said town and upon the streets thereof for the purpose of carrying passengers or goods; to regulate and license auctioneers, who cry any sale or sales on the public street. To insure the observance of said ordinances, occupations, activities or offenses set forth in said ordinances in addition to the action of debt or such other civil remedies as may exist in such cases by law for the recovery of the penalties thereunto affixed, they may affix such reasonable fine, not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00) in any case, as to them may appear right, and in default of the payment of any fine