

State Game Warden shall pay the sum of fifty cents for each head of a bird-hawk or chicken-hawk actually killed in this State, to the person producing satisfactory proof of having killed said hawk within this State. The said Commission shall require the State Game Warden to file an annual account with them showing the entire receipts and disbursements of himself and all deputies, and exhibit vouchers therefor, and also shall require said State Game Warden to file an approved bond in the penalty of two thousand dollars ($2,000) for the faithful performance of his duties, the cost of said bond to be paid out of said fund.

SEC. 71. Any person found guilty of hunting, pursuing or killing of any of the birds or animals referred to in this Act without having a license, except as herein provided or for refusing to show said license when demanded by the State Game Warden or any deputy or local game warden, sheriff, constable or other officer or person, or violating any of the other provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace of this State, shall be fined fifteen dollars ($15.00) for each and every offense and shall stand committed to the county jail or the Baltimore City jail, until such fine and costs are paid, but such imprisonment shall not exceed fifteen days for each offense. Any constable or other person other than the Game Warden or Deputy Game Warden or officer under the Conservation Commission receiving compensation, who shall procure the conviction of any person for violating any provision or provisions of this Act shall receive half of the fine recovered.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all general or local laws or parts of such laws inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and all resident and non-resident hunting license laws now in force, whether general or local, be and the same are hereby repealed. Provided, that this Act shall not affect the present law relating to licensing of gunning rigs used in the shooting of wild fowl on the Susquehanna Flats. However, all persons hunting wild fowl on the Susquehanna Flats must first procure a hunter's license to so hunt, shoot or kill. Local licenses issued to residents of Harford and Cecil Counties shall be valid for the killing of wild-fowl on the Susquehanna Flats. In case any section or provision of this