

insane or feeble-minded by said Commission, or a majority thereof, and the removal of such convict or convicts be deemed advisable, said Commission shall order said board to remove such insane or feeble-minded convict or convicts to some insane asylum within the State to be designated in such order of removal. All the expense incurred in the removal of such insane or feeble-minded convict or convicts shall be borne by said Board and the maintenance in such asylum of such insane or feeble-minded convict or convicts shall be met in the manner provided in this Article for other insane, lunatic or feeble-minded persons. If at any time after being removed to such asylum any such convict or convicts shall, in the opinion of said Commission recover his reason before the expiration of the term for which he was sentenced to the Penitentiary or House of Correction, he shall be returned thereto at the expense of such asylum, there to be kept until such term shall expire, or until otherwise discharged in due course of law. If any of such convicts shall, in the opinion of said Commission be still insane, lunatic or feeble-minded at the expiration of the term for which he was sentenced to the Penitentiary or House of Correction, he shall remain in such asylum until in the opinion of said Commission he shall have recovered his reason.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the first day of June, 1920.

Approved April 16, 1920.
