

visions of any public local law of Baltimore County relating to roads and streets.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the fifth day of June, 1920.

Approved April 23, 1920.

CHAPTER 88.

AN ACT to provide certain regulations for the shooting of wild fowl in, on or over the waters of Talbot County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be unlawful for any person at any time, in, on or over the waters of Talbot County, excluding the waters of Dickinson's Bay and Reed's Creek as hereinafter defined, to shoot at or shoot any wild fowl from any booby blind, stake blind, floating blind, sink box, or artificial point of any description, or to erect, set or maintain the same in said waters at a greater distance than one hundred yards from the natural shore at mean low water mark, from which the same may be extended.

SECTION 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any person at any time to erect or maintain or set said booby blinds, stake blinds, floating blinds, sink boxes or artificial points of any description, for the purpose of shooting wild fowl in said waters of Talbot County, excluding the waters of Dickinson's Bay and Reed's Creek as hereinafter defined, distant from each other less than five hundred yards, measuring in a straight line in any direction.

SECTION 3. And be it enacted, That "Dickinson's Bay and Reed's Creek," as in this Act referred to, shall embrace and include all that body of water in Trappe District of Talbot County, commonly called and known as "Dickinson's Bay and Reed's Creek" and lying northwesterly of a straight line running from a stone planted on the shore on the south side of a pond on Reed's Point to the extreme end of Howell's Point; that in, on or over said waters of Dickinson's Bay and Reed's Creek it shall be unlawful for any person at any time to shoot at or shoot any wild fowl from any booby blind, stake blind,