

and treasurer, on or before the 30th day of June following. And the said Commissioners shall not expend any more money in any fiscal year than is received by them from all sources of revenue, due and owing to the said city. And any Commissioner or Commissioners voting to authorize such expenditure shall be personally responsible for all such sum or sums of money so authorized to be paid.

SECTION 57. Each of the five Commissioners shall receive the sum of not more than five dollars for his attendance at each regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners. The Mayor, in addition to the sum which he receives as Commissioner, shall receive a further sum of one hundred dollars per year as Mayor. Neither the Mayor nor any Commissioner shall receive from the corporate funds any other or further sum of money or compensation than is provided by this section, except such expenses as he may incur in executing some special service as Commissioner, and except such other sums as he is now authorized to receive for his services in the performance of duties imposed upon him by the Charter of Cambridge in meetings of the Commissioners for specified purposes other than the regular meetings of the Board, that the five dollars herein provided to be paid each Commissioner for his attendance at each regular meeting of the Board shall be paid for but one meeting in each week.

SECTION 58-A. That in addition to the powers vested in the Commissioners of Cambridge by the foregoing section. the said Commissioners shall have power to regulate, control or prohibit upon any land within the corporate limits of Cambridge, by ordinance, the building, erection or the maintenance of any building or structure that works an injury to any person or the enjoyment of property, and to prevent the planting, raising or cultivating of any crop, of any kind, the existence of which within said corporate limits injures any person in health, safety, or the enjoyment of property, and the said Commissioners, are further authorized and empowered, in their discretion, at any time, by order to be set forth in their minutes, to increase the salary of any officer or employee from the amount now fixed by the Charter of Cambridge to such an amount as may be reasonable and necessary to procure the services that are required to execute the functions of the municipal government of the city, this to apply to only such officers or employees as are elected or appointed by the Com-
