

CHAPTER 105.

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 12 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Garrett County," sub-title "Wild Animals," to be known as Section 228 of said Article, and to repeal and re-enact with amendments Sections 229 and 230 of said Article, by providing a bounty for killing certain wild animals.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be added to Article 12 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Garrett County," sub-title "Wild Animals," said section to be known as Section 228 of said Article, and to repeal and re-enact with amendments Sections 229 and 230 of said Article 12, to read as follows:

228. Any citizen of the State of Maryland who shall kill or destroy any wildcat or fox within the limits of Garrett County, shall be entitled to the following allowance or bounty, viz: For each wildcat, the sum of two dollars; for each fox, the sum of one dollar.

229. To obtain such allowance it shall be necessary for the person killing such animal to produce the head, skin or scalp of the same before some justice of the peace for said county, and at the same time make oath that the animal or bird was taken and killed within the limits of Garrett County, within sixty days before the production of the head, skin or scalp before the justice, the said justice shall thereupon give the person producing the same a certificate that such head, skin or scalp was produced before him, wherein he shall set forth the above-mentioned oath; and it shall be also the duty of the justice to mark any such head, skin or scalp by cutting holes through the ear, to prevent any second allowance for the same.

Upon presentation of the above-mentioned certificate to the Treasurer of said county, the said Treasurer shall pay the allowance or bounty as provided in Section 228 of this Article.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1920.

Approved April 16, 1920.
