

126-B of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Public Education," sub-title "High Schools," and to follow immediately after Section 126A of said Article; and the other new section to be known as Section 132-B of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Public Education," sub-title "Schools for Colored Children," and to follow immediately after Section 132-A of said Article, so as to provide increases in the minimum salaries of teachers and principals of white and colored elementary and high schools of this State; and so as to provide for a reorganization of approved high schools.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 60 of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Public Education," sub-title "Teachers' Certificates, Salaries and Pensions," as the same was repealed and re-enacted by Chapter 106 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1918, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

60. No white teacher regularly employed in a public school of the State of Maryland shall receive a salary of less than six hundred dollars ($600) per school year. Provided, if such teacher holds a third grade certificate of the first class and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of three years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than six hundred and fifty dollars ($650) per school year.

No white teacher regularly employed in a public school of the State of Maryland, holding a second grade certificate, shall receive a salary of less than seven hundred dollars ($700) per school year. Provided, if such a teacher holds a second grade certificate of the first class and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of three years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than seven hundred and fifty dollars ($750) per school year. Provided, if such teacher holds a second grade certificate of the first class and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of five years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than eight hundred dollars ($800) dollars per school year.

No white teacher regularly employed in a public school of