

of three years, such principal shall receive a salary of at least one thousand four hundred dollars ($1,400) per school year; provided, if such principal has served as principal of an approved high school of the first group in the State of Maryland for a period of five years, such principal shall receive a salary of at least one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) per school year; provided, if such principal has served as principal of an approved high school of the first group in the State of Maryland for a period of seven years, such principal shall receive a salary of at least one thousand six hundred dollars ($1,600) per school year. And provided, further, if a high school of the first group employs six full-time high school teachers and has maintained an average daily attendance of one hundred pupils during the preceding year, the principal of such high school shall receive at least one hundred dollars ($100) more per school year than the foregoing schedule requires; if a high school of the first group employs ten full-time high school teachers and has maintained an average daily attendance of two hundred pupils during the preceding year, the principal of such high school shall receive at least two hundred dollars ($200) more per school year than the foregoing schedule requires.

The principal of a high school of the second group shall be paid at least one hundred dollars ($100) more per school year than the minimum required for a regular high school teacher. Provided, further, that a principal of a high school of the third group shall be paid at least fifty dollars ($50) more per school year than the minimum required for a regular high school teacher. And provided, further, that all high school principals on provisional certificates may be paid one hundred dollars ($100) per school year less than the foregoing schedule requires.

The term "high school principal's certificate," as used in Sub-Section 4, Section 55, Chapter 506, Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1916, shall be interpreted to apply only to principals of high schools of the first group, and the regular high school teacher's certificate as defined in Sub-Section 5, Section 55, Chapter 506, Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1916, shall be valid for the principalship of a high school either of the second group or of the third group.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That Sections 127 and