

than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for the first violation and not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each subsequent violation. Any manufacturer, importer, jobber, firm, association, corporation or person who shall mix or adulterate any feeding stuffs with any substance or substances injurious to the health of live stock or poultry shall be deemed guilty of a violation of the provisions of this Act, and in addition to the penalty provided in this section, the lot of feeding stuffs shall be subject to seizure, condemnation and sale as the Court may direct; the proceeds from such sale to be paid into the treasury of the Maryland State College of Agriculture to be added to the fund provided for in Section 83. The Court may, in its discretion, release the feeding stuffs so seized when the requirements of the provisions of this Act have been complied with, and upon payment of all costs and expenses incurred by the State in any proceedings connected with such seizure.

88-A. If it shall be found upon analysis or other examination that any feeding stuff is deficient in one or more valuable constituent or that an inferior product has been substituted in whole or in part, the purchaser or purchasers shall be entitled to recover as damages a sum equal to twice the commercial value of said deficiency, to be determined by reasonable rules to be published by said State Chemist with the approval of the State Board of Agriculture.

88-B. The Maryland State Board of Agriculture is hereby empowered to enforce the provisions of this Act and to prescribe the form of tags or labels to be used on commercial feeding stuff and to prescribe and enforce such rules and regulations relating to the sale of commercial feeding stuffs as it may deem necessary to carry into effect the full intent and meaning of this Act.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That all laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from and after June 1, 1920.
