

one year, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than seven hundred and fifty dollars per school year. Provided, further, that if such teacher holds a second grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of two years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than eight hundred dollars per school year. Provided, further, that if such a teacher holds a second grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of three years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than eight hundred and fifty dollars per school year. And provided, further, that if such a teacher holds a second grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of four years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than nine hundred dollars per school year.

SECTION 122C. No white teacher regularly employed in the public schools of Howard County, holding a first grade certificate, shall receive a salary of less than eight hundred dollars per school year. Provided, if such a teacher holds a first grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of one year, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than eight hundred and fifty dollars per school year. Provided, further, that if such a teacher holds a first grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of two years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than nine hundred dollars per school year. Provided, further, that if such a teacher holds a first grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of three years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than nine hundred and fifty dollars per school year. And provided, further, that if such a teacher holds a first grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of four years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than one thousand dollars per school year.

SECTION 122D. No white teacher regularly employed as principal of a one or two-teacher school in Howard County, holding a first grade certificate of the first class, shall receive a salary of less than eight hundred and fifty dollars per