

school year. Provided, if such a teacher holds a first grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of one year, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than nine hundred dollars per school year. Provided, further, that if such a teacher holds a first grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of two years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than nine hundred and fifty dollars per school year. Provided, further, that if such a teacher holds a first grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of three years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than one thousand dollars per school year. And provided, further, that if such a teacher holds a first grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of four years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than ten hundred and fifty dollars per school year.

SECTION 122E. No white elementary school principal, holding an elementary school principal's certificate, employed in Howard County, shall receive a salary of less than one thousand dollars per school year. Provided, if such a principal holds an elementary school principal's certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of one year, such principal shall receive a salary of not less than ten hundred and fifty dollars per school year. Provided, further, that if such a principal holds an elementary school principal's certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of two years, such principal shall receive a salary of not less than eleven hundred dollars per school year. Provided, further, that if such a principal holds an elementary school principal's certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of three years, such principal shall receive a salary of not less than eleven hundred and fifty dollars per school year. Provided, further, that if such a principal holds an elementary school principal's certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of four years, such principal shall receive a salary of not less than twelve hundred dollars per school year. And provided, further, that if such a principal holds an elementary