

school principal's certificate of the first class, and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of five years, such principal shall receive a salary of not less than twelve hundred and fifty dollars per school year.

SECTION 122F. The annual salary of a principal of a first-group high school in Howard County, holding a first grade, first class high school principal's certificate, shall not be less than twelve hundred dollars per school year. Provided, if such a principal holds a first grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the high schools of the State of Maryland for a period of one year, such principal shall receive a salary of not less than thirteen hundred dollars per school year. Provided, further, that if such a principal holds a first grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the high schools of the State of Maryland for a period of two years, such principal shall receive a salary of not less than fourteen hundred dollars per school year. Provided, further, that if such a principal holds a first grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the high schools of the State of Maryland for a period of three years, such principal shall receive a salary of not less than fifteen hundred dollars per school year. Provided, further, that if such a principal holds a first grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the high schools of the State of Maryland for a period of four years, such principal shall receive a salary of not less than sixteen hundred dollars per school year. And provided, further, that if such a principal holds a first grade certificate of the first class, and has taught in the high schools of the State of Maryland for a period of five years, such principal shall receive a salary of not less than eighteen hundred dollars per school year.

SECTION 122G. The annual salary of each assistant teacher regularly employed in a first-group high school in Howard County, holding a first class certificate, shall not be less than nine hundred-dollars per school year. Provided, if such a teacher holds a first class certificate, and has taught in the high schools of the State of Maryland for a period of one year, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than nine hundred and fifty dollars per school year. Provided, further, that if such a teacher holds a certificate of the first class, and has taught in the high schools of the State of Maryland for a period of two years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not