

shall be passed by the Board of County Commissioners to a fund which shall be a part of the revenue for the ensuing fiscal year.

Provided, however, and all the provisions of this Act are subject to this proviso, that in order to liquidate and pay off gradually the present floating debt of the county, represented by certificates of indebtedness falling due after the passage of this Act, the County Commissioners of said county are authorized to temporarily borrow on promissory notes during the fiscal year 1920-1921 a sum or sums of money not to exceed sixty thousand dollars ($60,000), the same to mature and be paid not later than September first of the following fiscal year; and said County Commissioners are authorized to temporarily borrow on promissory notes during the fiscal year 1921-1922 a sum or sums of money not to exceed forty thousand dollars ($40,000), the same to mature and be paid not later than September first of the following fiscal year; and said County Commissioners are authorized to temporarily borrow on promissory notes during the fiscal year 1922-1923 a sum or sums of money not to exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), the same to mature and be paid not later than September first of the following fiscal year, whereupon this proviso authorizing the temporary borrowing of money shall be void and of none effect.

SECTION 152I. And be it further enacted, That the Board of County Commissioners shall during the month of May of each year give notice to the people of Frederick County, by advertisement in at least two newspapers of general circulation and published in said county, of the times and place of the sitting of said Board of Estimates during the following June, and that at such sittings the said Board of Estimates will receive and consider applications for appropriations for improvements and other purposes and such other matters as may be brought before them in connection with which money may be appropriated.

SECTION 152J. And be it further enacted, That the said Board of Estimates, after receiving all of the estimates in the manner hereinbefore provided for, together with such estimates as they shall themselves make, before determining the aggregate of estimates they shall carefully consider each estimate, and so fix the amount of the same that it shall be what is reasonable and proper, and that they shall in making and
