

CHAPTER 142.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section eight (8) of Chapter 303 of the Acts of 1918, of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled "An Act to authorize the Maryland Industrial School for Girls to grant and convey all its property, real and personal, to the State of Maryland and to provide for the continuance under the supervision and control of the State of Maryland of the work of the Maryland Industrial School for Girls, hereafter to be known as the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls, as a reformatory institution of the State of Maryland for the care and training of white female minors committed thereto, and to provide for the management thereof, and for the maintenance thereof, and for the levy of a per capita charge upon the respective counties and the City of Baltimore for girls committed to its care."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section eight (8) of Chapter 303 of the Acts of 1918, of the General Assembly of Maryland be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

SECTION 8. For each white female minor committed to the care and training of the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls from the City of Baltimore or any one of the counties in the State, the said city or county, as the case may be, shall, as herein specified, pay into the State Treasury the sum of one hundred and eighty dollars ($180.00) per annum, for the care and training of such white female minor, and the remaining amount required for the care and training of such white female minor shall be paid from the Treasury of the State, and the said city or county, as the case may be, shall, as herein specified, pay unto the State Treasurer the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per annum, for each white female minor, paroled and under the control of the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls, for supervising said white female minors. The expense for care, training and supervision of all white female minors in the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls and on parole and under its control shall be a charge upon each county and City of Baltimore, committing such white female minor or minors to the Maryland Industrial