

ties or said city, based upon the previous year's certification by the Board of Managers of the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls to the said counties and said city; and the Board of County Commissioners of said counties and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall pay unto the State Treasurer at the end of each quarter of the calendar year an amount equal to the sum of forty-five dollars ($45.00) for each white female minor committed to the care and training of the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls, and the sum of six dollars and twenty-five cents ($6.25) for each white female minor paroled and under the supervision and control of the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls, multiplied by the number of white female minors certified to the Comptroller of the State by the Board of Managers of the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls, on the first days of January, April, July and October, respectively, in each year. Any balance from said levy at the end of the year shall revert to the Treasury of said counties or said city, and any deficiency, if any, shall be included in the next succeeding levy and forthwith paid into the State Treasury. Should any county or the City of Baltimore fail to levy a tax in said county or city for said amount when due said State, and shall fail at the time of levy other county or city taxes thereafter, to levy the tax aforesaid to an amount sufficient to pay the indebtedness subsequently incurred, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to bring in the name of the State an action against any said county, in the Circuit Court for said county, or against the City of Baltimore, in the Superior Court of Baltimore City, so failing aforesaid, to enforce the levying of said tax, for the recovery of the amount due the State, as aforesaid. Upon the failure of any county or the City of Baltimore to levy such tax as aforesaid to an amount sufficient to pay the amount then due the State, it shall be the duty of the State Comptroller to charge such delinquent county or said city with a penalty of interest at one per cent per month upon the amount of indebtedness for each month until payment thereof and penalty thereon be paid. It shall be the duty of the County Treasurer and the Mayor and the City Council of Baltimore, upon the collection of the taxes herein required to be levied, to pay unto the State Treasurer the amount due and owing from said county or city at the time and in the manner required for the payment of State taxes collected, and the
