

receipts and disbursements and give bond in sum equal to amount to be collected, shall be compensated therefor at rate of one per cent on amount collected; corporation shall furnish his bond.

The male and female citizens of Pen Mar of the age of twenty-one years and over, the male and female persons of the age of twenty-one years and over who reside at Pen Mar from June to October all of whom will duly register as hereinbefore prescribed and who will duly make affidavit that they intend to reside for same three months the succeeding year, and every property owner in the corporate limits of Pen Mar who shall duly register shall be entitled to vote at every election held by the corporation of Pen Mar. Any person legally registered shall be eligible to office.

Approved April 23, 1920.

CHAPTER 162.

AN ACT to add six new sections to Article 22 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Washington County," sub-title "Hancock," to be known as Sections 241-AB, 241-AC, 241-AD, 241-AE, 241-AF and 241-AG and to follow immediately after Section 241-AA of said Article, authorizing a bond issue for the construction and extension of the water and sewer systems and providing for a referendum vote on said bond issue.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That six new sections be and they are hereby added to Article 22 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Washington County," sub-title "Hancock," to be known as Sections 241-AB, 241-AC, 241-AD, 241-AE, 241-AF and 241-AG, to follow immediately after Section 241-AA of said Article, and to read as follows:

241-AB. The Burgess and Commissioners of Hancock are authorized and empowered to locate, design, adopt, construct, operate, maintain, repair, extend, enlarge or improve the supply, purification, filtration, pumping and disposal works, trunk lines and small distribution mains and lateral sewers in conjunction with a system of waterworks, or waterworks now in use by the inhabitants of the town of Hancock and the cor-