

interest on said bonds so issued, and at the expiration of five years there shall be levied annually by the Burgess and Commissioners an amount sufficient to pay the interest on the said bonds and to pay five hundred ($500) dollars of the principal of said debt, and the said bonds when issued shall be made to fall due so as to be payable as herein provided.

241-AF. The Burgess and Commissioners of Hancock are authorized to levy taxes not exceeding twenty-five cents on the one hundred ($100) dollars, upon the assessable property in the town of Hancock, to pay any costs and expenses incident to the exercise of the powers or any of them herein granted.

241-AG. The foregoing Sections 241-AB to 241-AF inclusive shall not be in force and effect unless the matter of issuing the bonds provided in said sections be submitted to a vote of the voters of the said town of Hancock, qualified to vote for Burgess and Commissioners of said town at any general election, and the intention to submit the question or matter to a vote of the qualified voters shall be advertised by printed hand bills posted in twenty conspicuous places, for at least thirty days before said election. Said election shall be by printed ballot, which shall indicate the voter's choice in favor of the issue of said bonds by the words "For the Additional Water and Sewer Fund" and his disapproval of the issue of said bonds by the words "Against the Additional Water and Sewer Fund." Should the matter of this bond issue fail at any general election, it may be submitted at any future general election.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1920.

Approved April 23, 1920.
