

or "Captain," and "Lieutenant," and for other members of the police force not to exceed the sum of one hundred and fifteen dollars per month, and said policemen shall be subject to removal for cause; they shall have power to appoint special policemen, if in their judgment the circumstances of the town shall require it; provided, however, that the term of appointment of such special policemen shall not exceed a period of thirty days. The Fire Marshal and Assistant Fire Marshals provided for by ordinance of the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown, for the more effective discharge of their duties and the protection of property, shall, during the time of fire, have all the powers of a policeman in the town of Hagerstown, and said Fire Marshal and Assistant Fire Marshals shall take the oath prescribed for policemen of said town and shall serve without pay.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this Act shall not become effective unless the same, when submitted as hereinafter provided to the qualified voters of the City of Hagerstown, at their regular municipal election, to be held on the fourth Monday of March, 1920, shall be approved as hereinafter stated. The provision of this Act shall be published in full at least three times in each of the daily newspapers published and circulated in Hagerstown, the first of said publications to be not less than ten days before the time of said election. The manner of submission shall be, that, on the ballot at the regular municipal election aforesaid, there shall be printed the words "For a salary of six hundred dollars per annum each for said Street Commissioners," with a blank square opposite at the right and the words "Against the salary of six hundred dollars per annum each for said Street Commissioners," with a blank square opposite at the right, and all voters desiring to vote for the provisions of this Act, shall place an X mark in the square opposite the words "For a salary of six hundred dollars per annum each for said Street Commissioners," and all voters desiring to vote against the provisions of this Act shall place an X mark opposite the words "Against a salary of six hundred dollars per annum each for said Street Commissioners." If at the regular municipal election, held under the provisions of this Act, a greater number of said qualified voters shall vote "For a salary of six hundred dollars per annum each for said Street Commissioners," than shall vote "Against a salary of six hundred
