

that, on the ballot at the regular municipal election aforesaid, there shall be printed the words "For water rent to become liens on property served," with a blank square opposite at the right, and the words "Against water rent to become liens on property served," with a blank square opposite at the right, and all voters desiring to vote for the provisions of this Act shall place an X mark in the square opposite the words "For water rents to become liens on property served," and all voters desiring to vote against the provisions of this Act shall place an X mark opposite the words "Against water rents to become liens on property served." If at the regular municipal election, held under the provisions of this Act, a greater number of said qualified voters shall vote "For water rents to become liens on property served," than shall vote "Against water rents to become liens on property served," then the provisions of this Act shall immediately go into effect. In case a greater number of said qualified voters at said election held under the provisions hereof shall vote "Against water rents to become liens on the property served," than "For water rents to become liens on property served," then, and in that event, this Act shall become null and void and of no effect, and the law as now in the Charter of Hagerstown, Maryland, shall remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 8. That if any claim for service of water, or water rent, shall remain in arrears against any consumer for a period of thirty days, or in case any consumer shall violate any of the rules and regulations relating to said Water Plant, which may be passed by the said Mayor and Council, the "Board of Water Commissioners" shall have the right to cut off the supply of water from said consumer, after notice, and the said water rents and charges established as provided in Section 3 of said Chapter 58 of said Acts of Assembly, 1918, shall become, and are hereby declared to be, liens on the property in which the said water is used, whether within or without the corporate limits of Hagerstown and be collected by the same process as City or County taxes are collected, or they may be collected by process before a Justice of the Peace or in the Circuit Court for Washington County as in jurisdiction in such cases, but the said liens hereby created shall not affect the title of any real or leasehold estate until the said "Board of Water Commissioners" shall enter the amount
