

this purpose, then the Commissioners of Oxford shall annually levy upon the assessable property of the town of Oxford a tax sufficient to pay each and every bond as it matures, and the interest on all bonds issued under this Act outstanding and unpaid, and the funds thus arising, shall be separately kept and shall not be used for any purpose other than is stated in this section, or for the payment of any notes which the Commissioners of Oxford may issue for the purpose of borrowing money temporarily, pending the sale of the bonds herein authorized, and authority is hereby conferred upon the Commissioners of Oxford to issue notes for the purpose of securing such temporary loans.

SECTION 5. That the funds realized from the issuing of said notes or from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited by the said Commissioners of Oxford in some bank selected by them to the credit and in the name of the Oxford Electric Commission hereinafter provided for in Section 6, and no money shall be withdrawn from said fund except on checks signed by the President of said Oxford Electric Commission, countersigned by the Treasurer thereof, and no money shall be withdrawn therefrom for any purpose whatever, unless the bill for the same be previously approved by at least two members of the Commission.

SECTION 6. The Commissioners of Oxford shall appoint three of the legal voters, residents and taxpayers of the town, who, together with the President of the Commissioners of Oxford, shall constitute the Oxford Electric Commission, which Commission shall have full charge and control of the building and construction of said electric light, heat and power plant, and of all the work done under this Act with full power and authority to advertise for bids, purchase material, let contracts and appoint such assistants or engineers as may be required, and to do all other things which may be deemed necessary to properly perform the duties for which said Commission shall be appointed; provided that no material shall be furnished either directly or indirectly by any member of said Commission, or by any firm or corporation with which any member of said Commission is connected. Said Commission so appointed shall within ten days after their appointment, organize by electing one of their members President, and also a Secretary and Treasurer (the latter need not necessarily be a member of the Commission) and the same person may hold
