

by Chapter 340 of the Acts passed at January Session, 1912, to read as follows:

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the Central Savings Bank of Baltimore shall be capable of receiving from any person or persons, or bodies corporate or politic, any deposit of money which shall be invested or loaned out on good security in the discretion of the directors; provided, no part of the funds of said corporation shall be loaned to any officer, director or employee of said corporation. It shall be the duty of the directors, at least once in every year, to make and declare such dividends of the interest and profits of said institutions as will not impair the deposits thereof, or otherwise injure or affect the interest or credit of said institution, and no director or other officer shall be liable in his person or property for any debts, contracts or engagements of the said corporation, but the money, property, rights and credits of said corporation and nothing more shall be liable for the same.

SEC. IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

-Approved April 9, 1920.
