

Treasury, the Treasurer, the Chairman of the State Roads Commission, the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, the Chairman of the State Board of Prison Control, the Chairman of the State Board of Health, the State Superintendent of Public Schools, the President of the Maryland State College of Agriculture, and the superintendent or managing heads of the following institutions: Crownsville State Hospital, Eastern Shore State Hospital, Rosewood State Training School, Spring Grove State Hospital, Springfield State Hospital, the Maryland Tuberculosis Sanitorium, the Maryland State School for the Deaf, at Frederick, the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls and the Maryland Training School for Boys.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That on or before October 1st, 1920, the Chairman of the Central Purchasing Bureau shall appoint a Secretary, who shall be known as the Purchasing Agent, who shall not be a member of the Bureau, and who shall receive the salary fixed by the Bureau. The Purchasing Agent shall perform the duties prescribed by the Bureau. He may, with the approval of the Bureau, appoint such clerical and other assistants and incur such expenses, including rent, as may be necessary to carry on the work of the Bureau, within the limits of the amount appropriated therefor by the General Assembly. Should any deficiency in the amount appropriated for the salaries and expenses of the Bureau occur, the using authorities shall contribute, with the approval of the Governor, to the maintenance of the Bureau from the appropriations for expenses made to them in the Budget Bill.

The members of the Bureau shall serve without compensation. They shall select from among their number a vice-chairman, who shall preside at their meetings in the absence of the Governor, and a treasurer. Six members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted, That from and after January 1st, 1921, every State officer, board, department, commission and institution, hereinafter called the using authority, shall purchase all materials and supplies, merchandise and articles of every description, through or with the approval of the Central Purchasing Bureau.

Any State officer or employee who shall violate any of the provisions of this Act may be removed by the Governor.

It shall be the duty of the Bureau to prescribe rules and
