

and for such other reasons as may be provided for by the laws of this State and of the United States.

39. Enlisted men may be transferred, in the same organization by the commanding officers of such organizations; from one organization to another, by a commanding officer of the Brigade; or from the Brigade to the Naval Brigade, or vice versa, by the Commander-in-Chief. All such transfers to be approved by the commanding officers of the respective organizations.

40. All discharges of enlisted men shall be made under the same rule and regulations as discharges are made in the United States Army or Navy; or as are adopted from time to time by the Governor; provided, an enlisted man who has not returned all the public or military property for which he is responsible shall under no circumstances, receive an honorable discharge.

41. For all the purposes of this Article, officers and enlisted men of the Active Militia or National Guard who entered the military or naval service of the United States in the Spanish-American or subsequent wars, shall be entitled to credit for the time served in such service as if the service had been rendered in the Active Militia.

42. The officers commanding the Brigade and Naval Brigade may cause those under their command to perform any military duty, and shall be responsible to the Governor for the general efficiency of the National Guard and for the drill, inspection, small arms and artillery practice, movements, operations and care of troops. Commanding officers of organizations shall be responsible to their immediate commanders for the equipment, drill, instruction, movements and efficiency of their respective commands. All commanding officers and enlisted men shall be responsible to their immediate commanding officers for prompt and unhesitating obedience, proper drill and the preservation and proper use of the property of State and of the United States or organization in their possession. The Brigade and Naval Brigade shall be inspected not less than once a year, and oftener, in the discretion of the Commander-in-Chief.

43. Officers and enlisted men may be warned for duty as reading the order to the person warned, or by leaving a copy of such order at the last known place of abode or business,
