

officers, two dollars and twenty-five cents; first class petty officers, one dollar and seventy-five cents; and third class petty officers, one dollar and fifty cents. And in addition to said pay, each enlisted man shall receive rations as prescribed by the regulations of the United States Army, and United States Navy, respectively, or commutation thereof at a rate not exceeding forty cents per day; each enlisted man, who has served a full term of enlistment and who re-enlists within 90 days after the expiration of his previous enlistment, shall receive an increase of ten per cent of his pay during this enlistment, and for each full term of enlistment served thereafter an increase of ten per cent will be granted, until forty per cent is reached; provided, however, that any man formerly a member of the National Guard or the United States Army who enlists within ninety days from the passage of this Act shall receive credit for all former military service performed in computing the foregoing rates of per centage of pay increase.

51. The general appropriations for the Militia shall be exclusively applied to the necessary and contingent expenses of the Adjutant General's Office and to the maintenance and equipment and for the general efficiency of the organized forces of this State, organized and enlisted as provided for in this Article. No purchases shall be made, debts incurred or money expended except by the direct authority of the Adjutant General. The Adjutant General shall make rules and regulations for receipts and expenditures of all monies coming under his control and he may require bond from such persons as he may designate to act as finance officers. All bills, except those specifically authorized, shall be audited and paid by the office of the Adjutant General and the general customs and methods of the Finance Office of the United States Army shall be followed as nearly as possible.

52. The Military Courts of this State shall be of the same character and subject to the same procedure as provided for the Military Courts of the United States Army. The jurisdiction of said courts or boards established under the provision of this Article shall be presumed and the burden of proof shall rest on any person seeking to oust such courts or boards of jurisdiction in any action or proceedings.

Upon the finding of any such court-martial imposing any of said fines, and upon the approval of the findings by the
