

tive organization commanders shall not be paid. In case of boards, courts or commissions serving more than one day, the rate of pay shall be computed at the rate of six hours as one day's service.

54. That all courts-martial of the organized militia, including the summary courts, shall have power to sentence to confinement in lieu of fines authorized to be imposed; provided, that such sentences of confinement shall not exceed one day for each dollar of fine authorized.

55. That presidents of courts-martial and summary court officers shall have power to issue warrants to arrest accused persons and to bring them before the court for trial whenever such persons have disobeyed an order in writing from the convening authority to appear before such court, a copy of the charge or charges having been delivered to the accused with such order, and to issue subpoenas, and subpoenas duces tecum, and to enforce by attachment attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers, and to sentence for a refusal to be sworn or to answer, as provided in actions before civil courts.

56. No action or proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against a member of a military court or officer or person acting under its authority, or reviewing its proceedings on account of the approval or imposition or execution of any sentence, or the imposition or collection of a fine or penalty, or the execution of any warrant, writ, execution, process or mandate of a military court.

57. The force organized as prescribed in this Act shall be considered in the actual service of the State, and the members thereof shall be subject to all military laws, orders and regulations prescribed for the government thereof, and all military offenses shall be considered, and they are hereby declared to be offenses against the general police regulations of the State, and shall be punishable by fine or imprisonment as herein provided.

Except when on duty in time of war, insurrection, invasion, public danger, or to aid the civil authorities on account of any breach of the peace, tumult, riot, resistance to power of the State, or imminent danger thereof, and also in all cases not otherwise covered, commissioned officers may be tried by court-martial for the following offenses: