CHAPTER 207.

AN ACT to add a new section to the charter of the town of Lonaconing, as incorporated by Chapter 132 of the Acts of 1890, to be known as Section 2-A, and to follow immediately after Section 2 of said charter, providing for extending the boundaries of the town of Lonaconing, Allegany County, Maryland.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to the Charter of the town of Lonaconing, as incorporated by Chapter 132 of the Acts of 1890, to be known as Section 2-A, to follow immediately after Section 2 of said charter, and to read as follows:

2-A. The Mayor and City Council shall have the authority to extend by ordinance the boundaries of the town of Lonaconing not exceeding five hundred feet in every direction from the present boundaries of said town whenever they may deem it desirable or necessary.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the above section shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the town of Lonaconing at the town election to be held in May, 1920, and upon each ballot there shall be printed the words "For Amending the Charter" and "Against Amending the Charter." If a majority of those voting thereon shall be in favor of amending the charter, then the above section shall become a part of the charter of said town, but if a majority shall be against amending said charter, then it shall not become a part of the charter of said town.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety, and being passed
