

public sewers and drains, or to alter their functions, or to increase their burdens, as they may think best.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of Aberdeen may acquire, by gift, purchase, lease, or by other methods of acquisition, or by condemnation, any land or property, including any drain, sewer, water course or stream of water, situated wholly or partly within or without the town of Aberdeen, or any interest, franchise, easement, right or privilege therein which may be required for the purpose of constructing and establishing said sewerage system; and when and so often as resort shall be had to condemnation proceedings, the procedure shall be that provided by Chapter 33-A of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland (Bagby) regulating the procedure for the acquisition of property for public use by condemnation. And the Commissioners of Aberdeen are hereby authorized to enact all such ordinances in furtherance of said condemnation proceedings as may be necessary and proper.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That all individuals or corporations lawfully having buildings, structures, works, conduits, mains, pipes, tracks or other physical obstructions in, over or under the public walks, avenues, streets, alleys or highways of the town of Aberdeen, which shall hinder or impede the progress of said sewerage system when in progress of construction and establishment, shall, upon reasonable notice from said Commissioners of Aberdeen, promptly so shift, adjust, accommodate or remove the same, at their own cost and expense, as to fully meet the exigencies occasioning such notice, and if any such individual or corporation shall refuse, neglect or fail after such reasonable notice to discharge any duty cast upon him or it by this section, he or it shall, in addition to but not in substitution for any other remedy or remedies that said Commissioners of Aberdeen may have in the premises, be subject to a fine of $50 for each and every offense, and also to an additional fine of $10 a day for every day that said refusal, neglect or failure shall continue, said fines to be collected as other fines in the town of Aberdeen are collected. The duty and cost of adjusting or removing private drains or sewers in the town of Aberdeen which shall hinder or impede the progress of said sewerage system when in process of construction and establishment shall rest upon and be borne exclusively by the said Commissioners of Aberdeen.
