

tents thereof in any Court of this State; to provide penalties not exceeding twenty-five dollars, or a term of imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, for the violation of any ordinance, or both fine and imprisonment; to require bonds of all officers and agents of the corporation, and where not otherwise prescribed, said bonds shall be made payable to the Mayor and Council of Midland and shall be in such form and with such sureties and for such amount as the Mayor and Council may prescribe; to create and fill and to discontinue all offices and employments, not otherwise prescribed herein, according to their judgment of the needs and requirements of the town; and in their discretion to remove for or without cause the incumbent of any such office or employment, and to prescribe, limit or change the compensation of any such officer or employee; in case of sickness, absence or inability of any officer to perform his duties, to provide for the performance of such duties by a temporary substitute for such officer, unless otherwise prescribed herein, and the acts performed by such substitute shall be deemed as valid as though performed by the said official himself; to make and prescribe all laws and ordinances, not inconsistent with the Constitution and Laws of this State, in regard to every office, matter and subject within the local government instituted by this Act and necessary for the welfare of the town; to condemn and acquire by condemnation or eminent domain any land or other property which may be necessary for opening, widening, straightening, grading or otherwise improving any street, lane, sidewalk or sewer within the corporate limits of said town, in the same manner and by the same methods as are now or may be prescribed by the General Laws of this State for condemnation of property or the exercise of the right of eminent domain by corporations; to make all regulations which may be deemed expedient for the promotion of health or suppression of disease; to restrain and prohibit gaming or gambling and all immodest or immoral exhibits, bawdy houses and houses of ill-fame; to regulate the use of streets and alleys by vehicles, and to regulate the speed of horses, automobiles, cars, street cars, locomotives, or other methods of travel through and within the corporate limits of the town; to regulate the use of sidewalks and to require the owner or occupant of the premises to keep the sidewalks in front of the same clean and free from snow and ice and other obstructions; to regulate and prevent the throwing