CHAPTER 283.

AN ACT to ratify and confirm the incorporation of The Liberty Trust Company, the purchase or acquisition by it of the property and assets, as an entirety, including the good-will and franchises of the Dime Savings Bank, Citizens' Savings Bank, Citizens' National Bank and the Third National Bank of Cumberland, respectively, all institutions doing the banking business in Cumberland, Maryland, and to authorize it to acquire other financial institutions in Allegany County, and elsewhere, and to confer upon the said The Liberty Trust Company, certain other powers, rights, immunities and franchises.

WHEREAS, On or about the first day of December, 1919, Hugh A. McMullen, Benj. A. Richmond, Henry J. Glick, George D. Landwehr, James A. McHenry, Simon Rosenbaum, David A. Robb, W. Wallace McKeig, Harry E. Weber, Charles G. Holzshu, Thomas B. Finan, Henry Shriver and D. Lindlev Sloan, all of Allegany County, Maryland; Clarence A. Brown, of New York City, and Thomas C. Marshall, of Akron, Ohio, did execute in triplicate, Articles of Incorporation, for the formation of a Trust Company under and by virtue of the Laws of Maryland as prescribed in Article II of the Annotated Code of Maryland (Bagby's) and amendments thereto, the said corporation to be known as The Liberty Trust Company, to be located at Cumberland, Maryland, with a capital stock of one million dollars ($1,000,000), divided into ten thousand (10,000) shares, of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100) per share, and did thereafter. to-wit, on the 13th day of December, 1919, severally acknowledge the said Articles of Incorporation to their act, before a Notary Public of the State of Maryland, in and for the County of Allegany, which said Articles of Incorporation were filed with George W. Page, Esquire, Bank Commissioner of Maryland, for examination, and the said Bank Commissioner having made such investigation as he deemed necessary, and satisfied himself by such investigation that the character, responsibility and general fitness of the persons named in said Articles of Incorporation was such as to command confidence and warrant belief that the business of the proposed corporation will be honestly and efficiently conducted in accordance with the intent and purpose of Article II,