

a tax which shall be sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and also to redeem all of said bonds which shall mature during any year; and said tax shall be collected in like manner as other taxes levied in said county are collected and when collected shall be applied to the payment of the interest on said bonds and to their redemption as and when they mature.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the money arising from the sale of the hereinbefore mentioned bonds shall be deposited by the County Treasurer of Caroline County in an account, separate and distinct from any other account he may have, ear-marked, "Denton School Fund," and the said funds shall be applied to the purposes set forth in this Act and to no other purposes whatsoever, and shall be paid by the said County Treasurer upon the order of said Building Committee from a warrant book specially authorized by said Committee, with the said warrants numbered consecutively, and the said Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay the contractor or contractors employed by said Building Committee in accordance with the terms of their said contracts, upon the warrants of the said Building Committee, such sum or sums of money as shall be certified in said warrants to which said contractor or contractors are entitled in the performance of all contracts, and shall pay upon the warrants of the said Building Committee the cost of plans and specifications for the work proposed to be done, the fee, salary or commission of any architect or architects that may be employed by said Building Committee and such other expenses as said Building Committee has incurred in the discharge of its duty; no sums of money from the said deposit shall be paid out of the County Treasurer except on the warrant of the said Building Committee; and the warrant of the said Building Committee shall be conclusive upon the County Treasurer of the propriety of any payment or payments so that the County Treasurer shall not be required to investigate the expenditure called for by said warrants. In case all bids are rejected for the erection and completion of the said building and work, and the same is erected under the supervision of the Building Committee as provided for in Section 4, the warrants of the said Building Committee shall be conclusive upon the County Treasurer of the propriety of any payment or payments and he shall honor said warrants in the same way and manner as if the contract were let.
