

States, without having obtained a license therefor as herein-after provided; but this Act shall not apply to sales made by any person under a provision of law requiring him to sell personal property.

333. All licenses to sell alcoholic or fermented beverages of any kind shall expire on the first day of January next ensuing the date of their issue and shall be issued for twelve, nine or six months and for no other times.

334. Any person desiring to obtain a license to manufacture or sell alcoholic or fermented beverages containing less than three and one-half per cent of alcohol by volume in Baltimore County shall, on or before the first day of December if he desires a license for twelve months; on or before the first day of March, if he desires a license for nine months; on or before the first day of June, if he desires a license for six months; file an application in writing with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County in which in the case of application for manufacture, wholesale or retail license he shall state: First, the name and residence of the applicant and how long he has resided there; second, that he is a citizen of the United States and has for two years next preceding the filing of such application been a bona fide resident of the State of Maryland, and for two years next preceding the filing of such application been a bona fide resident of Baltimore County (this provision not to apply to any one holding a license to sell spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors in said county at the date of the passage of this Act); third, the place of birth of the applicant, and if a naturalized citizen, when and where he was naturalized; fourth, the name of the owner of the premises upon which the business licensed is to be carried on; fifth, upon what property, if any, in Baltimore County, the applicant pays taxes, the amount of the assessment of said property, the amount of the taxes paid thereon by the applicant and in whose name the property upon which the applicant pays taxes is recorded upon the assessment and taxation books of the County; sixth, that the applicant is not, or if the application is by a firm, association or by more than one person, that none of the applicants are in any manner pecuniarily interested in the profits of any business conducted at any other place in said County where any alcoholic or fermented beverages of any kind are sold or kept for sale; seventh, the kind of license desired, whether