

specified, he shall give said notice as soon thereafter as possible.

339. The Clerk of the Court who receives said application, certificate and affidavits, shall file and carefully preserve the same, and shall keep in his office open to public inspection complete dockets with full and detailed indexes containing the names, recorded in an orderly and systematic way, of all applicants and of all signers upon all applications together with their respective addresses; and after giving the notices, hereinbefore required, if no cause be shown as hereinbefore provided and in cases in which the objections shall be overruled or in which the Court shall approve of and direct the granting and issuing of the license, shall issue to the applicant or applicants the license applied for upon receiving from the applicant or applicants, the following sum or license fee, viz.: If the license be for twelve months, and to sell alcoholic or fermented beverages by the drink or in quantities not more than four and seven-eighths gallons and such license is herein defined to be a retail license, the sum of two hundred dollars; if the license is for twelve months, and to sell alcoholic or fermented beverages in quantities not less than a pint and not to be drunk on the premises, and such license is herein defined to be a wholesale license, the said Clerk shall inquire of the applicant, under oath by such Clerk administered, as to the value of the stock of alcoholic or fermented beverages intended to be kept on hand in the business he proposes to conduct under the license applied for, and if it shall appear from the statement then made under oath that the value of the applicant's stock of spirituous or fermented liquors will not exceed one thousand dollars the license fee shall be two hundred dollars; if more than one thousand dollars and not exceeding two thousand dollars, the license fee shall be two hundred and fifty dollars; if more than two thousand dollars, the license fee shall be three hundred dollars. If the license fee is for twelve months and to sell alcoholic or fermented beverage in original package as filled and prepared for delivery by any brewer or brewing company, and such license is herein defined to be a brewer's license, the license fee shall be five hundred dollars. Before issuing any license under this Act the Clerk of the Circuit Court or his acting deputy issuing the same shall ask the applicant or applicant whether he,