

missioners may proceed in the same way as if said damages had been paid to the person or persons themselves. And for the purposes of the survey and plat provided for in this Act the County Road Engineer is authorized to go upon private property through which said proposed road, bridge or drain shall pass or be laid out and make whatever survey or surveys that he may deem necessary. And the County Commissioners shall have the right and power to condemn and acquire land adjacent to or near any county or public road, the material of which shall be deemed necessary or to be used in constructing or repairing any county or public road, bridge or drain in the same manner as in this section provided for the opening, closing, extending, widening and straightening of county or public roads, bridges or drains.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That all laws or sections or parts of all laws conflicting or inconsistent with any provision or provisions of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed so far as the same or any of the same conflict or are inconsistent with any provision or provisions of this Act.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1920.

Approved April 16, 1920.

CHAPTER 359.

AN ACT to authorize the County Commissioners of Baltimore County to borrow a sum not to exceed the amount due from the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City to the County Commissioners of Baltimore County and payable to the Treasurer thereof for the value of the property of Baltimore County which under Chapter 82 of the Acts of 1918 became the property of Baltimore City, and to apply the proceeds thereof to the replacement of said property and providing for the payment of said loan and the interest thereon.

WHEREAS, Under and by virtue of the power and authority of Chapter 82 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1918, James McC. Trippe was appointed by Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City and Henry G. Shirley was appointed by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, as arbitrators, to ascertain and determine the sum of money to