

James McC. Trippe, Henry G. Shirley and James F. Thrift, arbitrators appointed under Chapter 82 of the Acts of 1918 to value the property of Baltimore County in the area annexed by said Act, as may at the time of such loan be unpaid. And said Board of County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall when and as the annual instalments of $75,000 of the total debt of $750,000 due from the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City to the County Commissioners of Baltimore County and payable to the Treasurer thereof are paid shall apply the same to the reduction and in payment pro tanto of any part of any loan so made which at the time of the payment of such instalment may be due and unpaid.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds of any loan made under the authority of this Act shall be applied solely and exclusively to the purchase, construction, establishment or location of such property as they deem necessary to take the place of the property of Baltimore County which under Chapter 82 of the Acts of 1918 became the property of Baltimore City.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners be and they hereby are authorized to levy such tax on the assessable property of Baltimore County as may be needed to pay the interest on the loan herein provided for.

Approved April 9, 1920.

CHAPTER 360.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 6 of Chapter 300 of the Acts of 1918, of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled "An Act to provide for the continuance under the supervision and control of the State of Maryland, of the Maryland School for Boys, hereafter to be known as the Maryland Training School for Boys, as a reformatory institution of the State of Maryland for the cure and training of white minors committed thereto, and to provide for the management thereof, and for the maintenance thereof, and for the levying of a per capita charge upon the respective counties and the City of Baltimore for boys committed to its care."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section Six (6) of Chapter 300 of the Acts of 1918