

be, and shall claim that the said white male minor is a proper charge against some other county or the City of Baltimore, as the case may be, it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners of each of said counties or the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, as the case may be, to file such proofs as they may have with the State Comptroller within thirty days from the time of such notification and thereupon it shall be the duty of the State Comptroller to investigate the question of the residence of such white male minor and to determine of what county or the City of Baltimore, as the case may be, said white male minor is a proper charge, and shall thereupon notify the said counties or the City of Baltimore, as the case may be, of such determination and shall notify the Board of Managers of the Maryland Training School for Boys, and the State Comptroller, and the counties and City of Baltimore, as aforesaid, shall thereafter treat and regard such white male minor as of the county or city, as the case may be, according to the determination of the State Comptroller, and if the State Comptroller shall find that such white male minor is not a proper charge against any county or the City of Baltimore, in the State, such white male minor shall thereafter be regarded as a proper charge against the State at large.

Approved April 9, 1920.

---

CHAPTER 361.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 222 of Offutt's Code of Baltimore County, regulating the catching of fish in Gunpowder River, Middle River, Back River, Brown's Creek or Hawk Cove, or their tributary streams, and in that part of the Chesapeake Bay lying in Baltimore County, within designated lines, with seine or nets, as legalized by Chapter 242 of the Acts of 1878 and Chapter 69 of the Acts of 1906, and adding a new section to Section 222 of said Offutt's Code of Public Local Laws of Baltimore County to follow immediately after Section 222 and to be known as Section 222 A.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 222 of Offutt's Code of Public Local Laws of Baltimore County be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted to read as follows: