

terest, penalties and fee within six months after the approval of this Act. Any person or persons who shall thereafter exercise any powers under the charter or certificate of incorporation of any such corporation, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to a fine of not exceeding $1,000 or to imprisonment not exceeding one year, or to both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court.

The Secretary of State is directed to send copies of each of the said proclamations of the Governor to the Comptroller of the Treasury, to the Treasurer of the State and to the State Tax Commission, and also a list of all those corporations whose charters or certificates of incorporation shall have been revived by the payment as aforesaid of said taxes, interest, penalties and fee. The Comptroller and Treasurer shall note upon their respective records the facts of the repeal, annulment and forfeiture of the charters or certificates of incorporation of all corporations whose charter or certificate of incorporation have been repealed, annulled or forfeited as aforesaid, and the revival of those which have been revived; and the Comptroller shall notify the State Tax Commission of the same, to the end that the State Tax Commission may note the same upon its records. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller, at the time he certifies said corporations to the Governor as aforesaid, also to mail to each corporation so certified, at its address or office as the same appears upon his books, a notice that its charter will be repealed, annulled and forfeited, under the provisions of this section unless all taxes, interest and penalties so due by it are paid as aforesaid, it being the intention hereof that the mailing of said notice shall be sufficient, and that the failure for any reason of any such corporation to receive the notice so mailed to it, shall in no wise affect the repeal, annulment and forfeiture of its charter, in accordance with this section.

Nothing in this section shall be held or construed to repeal, supersede or in any manner affect any remedy or provision of law for the collection of any and all taxes, and the interest and penalties due thereon.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the first day of June, 1920.

Approved April 9, 1920.
