

on said bonds and their redemption as and when they mature.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the money arising from the sale of the hereinbefore mentioned bonds shall be deposited by the County Treasurer of Caroline County in an account, separate and distinct from any other account he may have, ear-marked "Greensboro School Fund," and the said fund shall be applied to the purpose set forth in this Act and to no other purpose whatsoever, and shall be paid by the said County Treasurer upon the order of said Building Committee from a warrant book specially authorized by said Committee, with the said warrants numbered consecutively, and the said Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay the contractor employed by said Building Committee in accordance with the terms of their said contract, upon the warrants of the said Building Committee, such sum or sums of money as shall be certified in said warrants to which said contractor is entitled in the performance of all contracts, and shall pay upon the warrants of the said Building Committee the costs of plans and specifications for the work proposed to be done, the fee, salary or commission of any architect or architects that may be employed by said Building Committee and such other expenses as said Building Committee has incurred in the discharge of its duty; no sums of money from the said deposit shall be paid out of the County Treasury except on the warrant of the said Building Committee; and the warrant of the said Building Committee shall be conclusive upon the County Treasurer of the propriety of any payment or payments so that the County Treasurer shall not be required to investigate the expenditure called for by said warrants.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That if the sum hereinbefore provided shall not be adequate to carry out the purpose of this Act, said Building Committee can so notify the "Board of Education of Caroline County," who shall immediately proceed to sell for cash the present school properties of Greensboro and turn over the proceeds to the Building Committee; and provided that no sale of the said property shall be consummated which shall carry possession of the said properties until the building provided for by this Act is ready for occupancy.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That as to the general equipment of the buildings, the Building Committee can in-