

in the respective banks at the rate of not less than four (4) per centum per annum from the date of such deposit, which interest shall be added to and become a part of the sinking fund herein created.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of designating what public school building shall be erected in said county or alterations, additions or repairs exceeding a cost of three hundred ($300) dollars shall be made to existing school buildings, there is hereby created a commission to be known as the "Public School Building Commission of Anne Arundel County" to be composed as follows: Of the seven members of the said Board of County Commissioners, or the successors of any of them; three (3) members of the Board of Education or the successors of any of them; one person resident in the Fifth Election District of said county, to be selected by the ten members of the Commission, the County Superintendent of Schools shall be secretary. Said Commission shall organize as soon as conveniently may be after the passage of this Act, and shall name an executive committee of four, including two members of the Board of County Commissioners, one member of the County Board of Education and the member of the Building Commission from the Fifth District, of which said executive committee the County Superintendent of Schools shall be secretary.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said executive committee to inspect proposed sites, formulate plans of buildings and of improvements, receive in open meeting formal statements of school patrons and taxpayers whenever such open meetings may be requested by substantial number of interested parties, and collate data bearing upon proposed expenditures; and it shall make comprehensive reports of information gathered by it and submit its recommendations thereon to the Public School Building Commission of Anne Arundel County within a reasonable time after being directed by the said Commission to make any investigation. The said Commission, upon such deliberation as it shall deem fair to all citizens interested in any project, shall, after taking into account the recommendations of its executive committee in connection therewith presented in writing, decide whether any part and if so what part of the proceeds of the bond issue herein authorized, shall be devoted to such project.
