

under the seal of the State, said controversy shall be referred to a committee of arbitration consisting of three persons to be selected as follows: one thereof shall be selected by the inspector with the approval of the Governor, one thereof shall be selected by the claimant or claimants or his or their agents, and the two thus selected shall select the remaining member of said committee; provided, however, that no person shall be so selected, or if selected shall be competent to serve as a member of any committee of arbitration who shall have a direct or indirect interest in the tobacco in controversy.

28. If any certificate or note be lost or mislaid or destroyed the person entitled to receive the tobacco by virtue of such note or certificate may make oath before a justice of the peace to the effect of said note being lost and shall take a certificate to that effect from such justice of the peace to the inspector and deposit the same with him; then the inspector may deliver to such person a new note or certificate with marks, numbers, weights and date corresponding with the former note and the inspector shall thereby be discharged from all action and demands on account of such former note or certificate.

39. Whenever so large an amount of inspected tobacco shall have accumulated in the warehouses as to delay inspection, the inspector shall have the right to rent storage for as much as may be necessary to remove.

40. All tobacco inspected in the State Tobacco Warehouse of Maryland shall be entitled to storage free of charge for six months from the date of sale.

41. Every hogshead of tobacco inspected in the Maryland State Tobacco Warehouse which shall remain in such warehouse, after having been sold by the grower or his agent, for a period longer than six months from date of sale thereof, shall be subject to such storage charges, after the expiration of such period of six months from date of sale, as shall, from time to time, be fixed by the inspector.

44. It shall be the duty of the several inspectors of tobacco to carefully return all bundles of tobacco, other than samples which may be drawn in sampling, and all bundles which may be displaced in uncasing tobacco to the hogshead from which the same were drawn or displaced; and any agent or employee of said inspector who shall knowingly violate the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of misconduct in office, and shall be liable to removal.
