

47. The Comptroller, Librarian, or other proper officer, shall furnish the said inspector with a reasonable number of bound copies of so much of this article as relates to the inspection of tobacco, for the inspector's use, the cost of the same to be paid out of the tobacco fund.

48. If any owner, or owners of tobacco, or his, her or their agent or agents, shall believe that any of their tobacco has been incorrectly sampled, and shall so notify the inspector before the sale thereof, and within ten days of the date of its inspection, the matter shall be referred to a committee of arbitration, consisting of three persons, to be selected as follows: One thereof shall be selected by the inspector and approved by the Governor, one thereof shall be selected by the owners of the tobacco or their agent or agents, and the two thus selected shall select the remaining member of the committee, and said committee shall then have the power to require the said inspector, in charge of said hogshead or hogsheads of tobacco to have the same reopened, and if it shall be found that the sample does not correctly represent said tobacco, the said committee or a majority of them, shall select a sample which shall correctly represent it, and the new sample shall be substituted in the place of the rejected sample, at no cost to the owner or owners; provided, that if said sample shall be found by said committee to properly represent said tobacco, then the cost of the reopening said tobacco shall be paid by the owner or owners of the same, and said costs shall be one dollar per hogshead.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety, and being passed upon a ye and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved February 27, 1920.
