

Incorporation of the Maryland State College of Agriculture the powers, rights and privileges heretofore possessed by the Regents of the University of Maryland, under the charter of the University of Maryland, and may exercise such of them as they shall from time to time deem judicious.

4. And be it further enacted, That the Regents of the University of Maryland shall have power to conduct or maintain such departments or schools in said University and in such localities as they, from time to time, may deem wise.

5. And be it further enacted, That upon the going into effect of this Act, all the property and assets belonging to each of the said corporations named herein, and all the debts and liabilities thereof, of whatsoever nature and description, shall be devolved upon the said consolidation and merged corporation.

6. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on the first day of July, in the year 1920, provided that before that date, the Regents of the University of Maryland, as constituted under the Act passed at the November Session, 1912, Chapter 159, as amended and supplemented by the said Act passed at the January Session 1882, Chapter 88, shall signify their assent thereto by a resolution adopted by a meeting of said Regents, and by filing in the office of the Secretary of State of Maryland, a copy of such resolution of acceptance, certified by the hands of the Provost and of the Secretary of said Board of Regents, and under its common and public seal, and shall be further accepted before said date by the Maryland State College of Agriculture, by a resolution adopted by its Board of Trustees, and by filing in the office of the said Secretary of State of Maryland, a copy of such resolution of acceptance, certified by the hands of the President and Secretary of said Board, and under its seal, and upon the receipt of both of said resolutions, and not before, the Secretary of State shall issue a certificate that such resolutions of acceptance have been duly filed with him, and such certificate shall be evidence that the acceptances provided for in this Act have been duly given.

Approved April 9, 1920.
