

CHAP. 91. three first days of the county courts of the first judicial district for the transaction of equity business, and the act, entitled, An act for the transaction of equity business in the county courts of the first judicial district, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Judges. when to attend to transact equity business

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the judges of the said court to attend for the transaction of equity business at the court houses of the several counties composing the first judicial district, on such days between the regular terms of said courts as shall be appointed by the said court; and the said days shall be appointed at the term of each county court next after the passage of this act.

May exercise powers, &c

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the said judges shall hold, exercise and practise, all the powers and authorities and jurisdiction, which the county courts now hold, exercise and practise, under the several acts of assembly relating to the equity jurisdiction of the several courts of this state.

Adjourned terms

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the judges of the said district, from time to time, to hold adjourned terms of the said equity courts in the said district, at such times to be by them appointed, as shall be necessary for the transaction of the business of the said court, as often as the state of the docket may require the same, so that each and every cause remaining on the trial docket at the end of the term of such court, may be tried, or otherwise disposed of, according to law.

CHAP. XCII.

Passed Feb 21, 1829 An Act to authorise the Orphans Court of Saint-Mary's County to have perfected and recorded certain Papers and Instruments of Writing left incomplete and unrecorded by the late Register of Wills for the said County.

Preamble

WHEREAS it has been represented to this general assembly, by the orphans court of Saint-Mary's county, that there are accounts, vouchers and exhibits, in the office of the register of wills for said county, which appear to have been duly sworn to by executors, administrators and guardians, before James Forrest, deceased, the late register of wills for the said county, for statement, file and record by him; also inventories and accounts of sales duly sworn to, and wills proved, together with part of the proceedings of the court, and other papers for file and record, and that the necessary probates and proceedings have not been spread at large upon or annexed to, some of the said papers or instruments of writing, and as it has become necessary, in many instances, that the probates to the same should be written out and certified, with a view to the proper settlements of estates of