

CHAP. 100.

Vacancies how to be supplied

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That at all times forever hereafter, when any vacancy or vacancies shall happen in such community of trustees, by the death, resignation or refusal, of any or more of the trustees thereof, or by wilful neglect of any one or more of them to attend three succeeding stated meetings of the board of trustees, the surviving or remaining trustees, or a quorum of them, may proceed to elect, by ballot, other sensible, judicious and discreet person or persons, of the county or city of Baltimore, to be the trustee or trustees to supply the vacancy or vacancies occasioned by the respective causes aforesaid, and in such manner may all future vacancy or vacancies be supplied by the said trustees, and their successors, or a quorum of them, so as to perpetuate not less than the number of six persons of said academy or school forever.

Trustees may sue and be sued, &c

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the said trustees, and their successors, by the name and style aforesaid, shall be capable in law to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in any court or courts, and before any judge, justice or justices in this state, and elsewhere, in all manner of suits, complaints, pleas, causes, matters and demands, of whatever nature, kind or form, they be, and all and every other matter or thing to do therein, in as full and effectual manner as any other person or persons, bodies politic, in like cases may or can do and perform, and the said trustees, and their successors, or a quorum of them, shall have full power and authority to have, make and use, one common seal, with such devices and inscriptions as they shall think proper, and the same seal, at their pleasure, to create, alter and renew.

Professors, &c to be appointed

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said trustees, and their successors, or a quorum of them, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, shall have full power and authority to constitute and appoint, in such manner as they shall think best and most convenient, professors, teachers, and assistants, for instructing the students and scholars of said academy or school, in the languages and such sciences and branches of education as they shall think proper and suitable to be taught therein, and to make all such laws, ordinances, rules, orders, or regulations, for the government of the said academy or school, and the instruction of the pupils as aforesaid, and the directors, visitors, and examination of the said seminary, and the scholars therein, as shall in their opinion best promote the important objects of the institution, provided the same be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of this state.

Stated meetings

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said trustees, and their successors, or a quorum of them, shall meet at least four times every year in stated quarterly meetings, to be appointed by their own ordinances, or by their own adjourn-
