

rights and privileges as aforesaid, and make return of the said estimate to the said orphans court as damage or consideration money for the rights and privileges as aforesaid. CHAP. 108.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That so much of the said money as shall belong to any minor or minors as aforesaid, when paid shall, under the direction of the said orphans court, be vested in such manner as the said court may direct, and so remain until the said minor or minors entitled to receive the same shall have arrived at lawful age, and if any of the said minors shall die before arriving at lawful age, the money vested as aforesaid shall belong to the person or persons who shall inherit the land through which the said canal or head-race was cut, and on which the said dams were erected as aforesaid. Money belonging to minors to be vested

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, when so appointed, shall cause a plot and certificate to be made of the lands covered by water, or injured by reason of the said canal or head-race, and cause a copy of the same to be returned to the clerk's office of the said county, there to be recorded, and the expenses thereof, together with two dollars per day for each of the said commissioners, shall be paid by the said Samuel R. Turner, his heirs or assigns. Plot of land to be made

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That if the said Samuel R. Turner, his heirs or assigns, or any other person or persons through whose lands the said canal or head-race may be cut, and on which the said dams may be created as aforesaid, or his or their guardian or representative, as the case may be, shall conceive him, her or themselves aggrieved by such valuation and assessment of damages by the said commissioners, it shall and may be lawful for any justice of the peace, on his, her or their application, to issue his warrant, under his hand and seal, directed to any constable of the county aforesaid, commanding him to summon six disinterested men, qualified to serve as jurors in the county court, to meet upon the premises on a certain day, of which ten days notice at least shall be given to the party or parties interested; and the said jurors, when so met, and having each taken an oath, or affirmation, before some justice of the peace of the county aforesaid, that he will without favour, affection or partiality, assess the damages sustained by the person or persons at whose request such inquisition shall have been taken, by reason of cutting the said canal or head-race, or erecting the said dams, through, or on his, her or their lands, or in case of exorbitant damages having been assessed by the said commissioners, shall thereupon proceed to value and assess the damages as aforesaid accordingly, taking into consideration the advantages and disadvantages, if any; and such inquisition and valuation shall be final and conclusive between the parties respectively; Provided, that the expenses of the said Damages to be assessed Provide