CHAP. CXIX.

§ Supplement to the act, entitled, An act to provide for the making the several Turnpike Road, and for the extension of the Charters of the several Banks therein mentioned, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, chapter forty-two.

Passed Mar 7, 1829

WHEREAS it is represented to the general assembly, that great inconvenience is likely to result to the banks, and individual stockholders, who have subscribed for stock under the act to which this is a supplement, as also to the president, managers and company, of the Rockville and Washington Turnpike Road, in the fixing of the toll on the Monocacy Bridge, and the keeping of their accounts, and making and apportioning the dividends on the stock under said act of assembly, according to the provisions of the same; therefore,

Preamble

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said banks, and the individual stockholders, who have subscribed for stock under the act to which this is a supplement, be and they are hereby authorised, on the fourth Monday of May next, and on the fourth Monday of May in each succeeding year, to elect, by ballot, a president and four managers to manage the concerns of said road from Frederick-town to the Monocacy, together with the bridge to be erected over said river; and the said president and managers, when elected, shall have power to pass all by-laws necessary for the regulations of their proceedings, to make all contracts necessary for the completion and keeping in repair of said part of said road, and the said bridge, to erect toll-houses and gates, to employ gate keepers, and to exercise all the rights, privileges and control, over said bridge and said part of said road, that the said turnpike road company, and said banks, are authorised by law to exercise over the same; and for the more effectually securing to said bank, and said individual stockholders, the full benefit of said rights and privileges, the said president and four directors shall have full power and authority to use the corporate name of The President, Managers and Company, of the Washington and Rockville Turnpike Road, in the making of all contracts in relation to said road and

President and managers to be elected annually—their powers
