

behalf of this state; and any person or persons offending in the premises, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, for each and every ticket, share, or part of a ticket, certificate, writing or token, so vended, sold, bartered, assured, furnished, given, procured, notified or registered; and to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars for each and every day, or part of a day, that such office, house or other place, shall be opened, set up, used or kept, or to imprisonment not exceeding one year for any and every such offence.

CHAP. 129.

Penalty on persons convicted of any offences specified by this act

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons within this state, the lottery commissioners in their official capacity only excepted, directly or indirectly, to sell, vend, barter, assure, furnish, give, procure, supply, or cause to be sold, vended, bartered, assured, furnished, given, procured or supplied, or to notify or register, or cause to be notified or registered, any ticket, share, or interest in any ticket, or prize in any lottery, or other device or game of chance; or of any certificate, writing or token, that any person shall be, or may become entitled to any prize or interest whatsoever, that shall be dependent on the drawing or determination of any lottery, or other device or game of chance, granted by this state, and approved of by the lottery commissioners, or proposed by the said commissioners, on behalf of this state; or to open, set up, use, or keep by himself, herself or themselves, or by any other person or persons, any office, house or other place, for selling, vending, bartering, assuring, furnishing, giving, procuring, supplying, notifying or registering, any ticket, share or interest in any ticket, or prize, in any lottery, or other device or game of chance, or any certificate, writing, or token, that any person shall be or become entitled to any prize, or interest whatsoever, that shall be dependent on the drawing or determination of any lottery or other device or game of chance, granted by this state, and approved of by the lottery commissioners, or proposed by the said commissioners on behalf of this state, unless such person or persons shall have first obtained, and be entitled to use, a license to vend lottery tickets in the manner hereinafter prescribed; and any person offending in the premises shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars for each and every ticket or share in any ticket, or prize, in any lottery or other device, or game of chance, or each and every certificate, writing or token, that any person or persons shall be or may become entitled to any prize, or interest whatsoever, that shall be dependent on the drawing or determination of any lottery or other device or game of chance, so vended, sold, bartered, assured, furnished, giv-

Not lawful for any person (commissioners excepted) to sell, &c any ticket in any lottery without first obtaining a license, &c